November 2021 Newsletter

Dear Parents/Riders:

Hope everyone had a Happy Halloween! We are looking forward to our camps the week of Thanksgiving. We have them on Mon, Tues, Wed that week. We hope everyone has fun plans for Thanksgiving.

November Tuition

Payment Policy: Reminder we prefer checks over cash, but if paying with cash, we do require an email from you stating you paid with cash and the date so we can send you a receipt. We do not accept credit cards. Speak to Hannah if you prefer Venmo or Zelle.

November Tuition is due at your first lesson of the month to avoid a $10 late fee and the whole month should be paid in full at that time.

November tuition is below if attending weekly.

Reminder for the school year, we do require makeups for any lessons missed or you forfeit the cost of that lesson. If attending less than weekly, multiply your number of lessons for the month by $80.

- 5 Mondays, Tuesdays @ $350 for groups/semis or $375 for privates
- 4 Wednesdays, Fridays, Saturdays, Sundays @ $280 for groups/semis or $300 for privates
- 3 Thursdays @ $210 for groups/semis or $225 for privates
 - Note: we will be closed on Thanksgiving 11/25 in celebration of the holiday. If you would like a makeup, please let us know. If you do want a makeup, please make your payment for $280 for groups/semis or $300 for privates as that will total 4 lessons for the month.

YES we will have lessons the entire week of Thanksgiving except for Thanksgiving Day. Please let us know if you will be absent from your lesson during Thanksgiving week, or if you'd like to schedule an extra lesson another day.

Latest Happenings

We have a new horse, Scarlett! She is a 10 year old large pony that was used in a lesson program similar to ours previously. We actually got her from the place we got many of our horses, so we are excited about her. We will slowly be adding her into lessons as she settles in here!

Honey moved on to her forever home with Tempest, who is still part of The Equestrian Reserve family and team. You may even see Tempest coaching at some 2022 shows. Tempest has loved Honey for many years and offered her semi-retirement, so we are very happy for them both.

We said goodbye to instructors Sam and Niki this past month as Niki is moving on to another endeavor and Sam has indicated she is going back to college. We wish them all the best and know they made a lasting impact on our students here. We are very excited about the potential new instructors we are currently interviewing. We will update you on their accomplishments in the horse industry as we introduce them to the team.

Decisions about becoming a show team member must be made by mid-December to reserve your spot on the team. All Riders/Parents NEW to Showing must attend one of the Parent Interest Meetings. Please notify us by email if you would like to attend and Hannah will send you the available dates.

If new to showing, it is mandatory that you: attend one of these meetings, and that your child has passed Level I, participates in The World of Showing Clinic and has observed one show.

Christmas and Holiday Gift Ideas PLEASE ORDER BY November 15

It's now the time of year where we can have warm sunny days or cold, windy and wet days. Please be prepared by dressing correctly with layers, Under Armor, gloves, warm socks and winter riding boots, all of which will ensure that winter riding is still a great experience. We will have warm Equestrian Reserve logo fleece jackets and our wonderful weatherproof jackets as well as long sleeve t's, hoodies and other items available to order. These make great holiday gifts, so start placing those orders the holidays are just around the corner! Because of the current supply chain crisis, we are asking for these orders earlier this year to avoid any problems.

We will have this order form available soon – check your emails!
